Welcome

Welcome to our Professional Law Catalogue, newly updated for 2018.

Here you'll find the very best of our books published for lawyers and associated professionals in our major topics of maritime law, commercial law, construction law, insurance law, and alternative dispute resolution. Alongside strong new editions in our leading Lloyd's Shipping Law Library and the Maritime and Transport Law Library, we have added exciting new titles for practitioners across our series. Highlights include 'The Practice of International Commercial Arbitration' from Professor Anselmo Reyes and 'The Application of Contracts in Engineering and Construction Projects' from Dr Donald Charrett.

It is a constant pleasure to work with the eminent lawyers and industry experts I am lucky to have as contributors, authors, and series editors. If you are interested in joining them, please do get in touch.

Proposals are invited for the following series:

Construction Practice Series

Admiralty Jurisdiction and Practice

Nigel Meeson and John Kimbell, Quadrant Chambers, UK
 Series: Lloyd's Shipping Law Library

Admiralty Jurisdiction and Practice is the definitive work on litigation in the Admiralty Court. It provides unrivalled commentary and analysis of the key principles of admiralty law, from jurisdiction and procedure to forms and precedents, and is firmly established as the leading reference guide for today's maritime practitioner. The authors also deal with several topics not covered elsewhere, including the impact of insolvency, the interplay between jurisdiction and practice, limitation periods, the role of international conventions, and collision action rules.

Contractual Estoppel

Alexander Trukhtanov
 Series: Lloyd's Commercial Law Library

In this new title, the author, Alexander Trukhtanov, responds to policy objections and seeks to answer the charge that contractual estoppel is a misnomer, anomaly or distortion of reliance-based categories of estoppel, by showing that contractual estoppel is its own category of legal estoppel. The book is a single point of reference for a systematic and organised exposition of the subject and an explanation of how it fits into existing law. It is practice-oriented but engages with important conceptual points.

A Practical Guide to the Insurance Act 2015

David Kendall and Harry Wright

Series: Practical Insurance Guides

This book is a thorough introduction to the Insurance Act 2015, which focusses on the practical effect of the Act on the way in which the business of insurance is done. Of assistance not only to insurance lawyers and members of the judiciary, but also underwriters, claims handlers, brokers and buyers of non-consumer insurance policies, this book covers each of the core changes brought about by the Act, focussing primarily on their impact on non-consumer insurance and reinsurance. It also analyses (where appropriate) the particular ways in which the Act differs from existing law, by reference to the Marine Insurance Act 1906, and cases decided prior to 12 August 2016.

Causation in Insurance Contract Law

Meixian Song, University of Exeter

Series: Contemporary Commercial Law

Causation is a crucial and complex issue in ascertaining whether a particular loss or damage is covered in an insurance policy or in a tort claim, and is an issue that cannot be escaped. Therefore, this unique book will assist practitioners in answering one of the most important questions in the handling of their insurance and tort claims. Through extensive case law analysis, this book scrutinises the causation theory in marine insurance and non-marine insurance law, and provides a comparative study on the causation test in tort law. In addition, the author expertly applies causation questions in concrete scenarios, and ultimately, this book provides a single volume solution to a very complex but essential question of insurance law and tort law.

Cases and Materials on Marine Insurance Law

Susan Hodges

This book provides a comprehensive collection of Cases and Materials On Marine Insurance Law. The sources included here are not always readily accessible. Each chapter is introduced with a brief resume of the general principles, before the facts of each case are summarised and the extracts of the relevant parts of judgments reproduced. The significance of the judicial extracts, the statutory materials and standard terms are then discussed with particular emphasis on important and problematical areas of the law. This book will be indispensable not only to postgraduate students of law, in-house lawyers, insurance brokers and claims adjusters, but also to students of maritime studies, legal practitioners and a wide range of professionals within the shipping industry.

Good Faith and Insurance Contracts

Peter MacDonald Eggers, 7 King's Bench Walk, UK and Simon Picken, 7 King's Bench Walk, UK

Series: Lloyd's Insurance Law Library

Good Faith and Insurance Contracts sets out an exhaustive analysis of the law concerning the duty of utmost good faith, as applied to insurance contracts. Now in its fourth edition, it has been updated to address the arrival of the Insurance Act 2015, as well as any references to new case law. In addition, it synthesises all known judicial decisions by the English Courts concerning good faith in this area.

Illegality in Marine Insurance Law

Feng Wang

Series: Contemporary Commercial Law

Illegality in Marine Insurance Law is the first book to deal specifically with illegality in the context of marine insurance law. Previously, this issue has only ever been partially covered within analysis and criticism of Section 41 of the Marine Insurance Act 1906 and warranties. However, Dr Wang Feng goes much further than this by considering its impact on the common law relevant to marine insurance in many jurisdictions worldwide. Of interest to academic researchers and practitioners in common law and civil law jurisdictions, this book is a unique and comprehensive guide to illegality in marine insurance law.

Insurance Law Implications of Delay in Maritime Transport

Aysegül Bugra

Series: Contemporary Commercial Law

Delay in a marine adventure is an important and frequent phenomenon of maritime transport as it affects various parties and their interests. Insurance Law Implications of Delay in Maritime Transport is the first single book to deal specifically with this issue in the context of insurance law. The book addresses the losses and expenses that may arise from delay or loss of time in maritime transport, the types of insurance available covering or excluding losses arising from it, and the impact of delay on voyage policies.

The Insurance Act 2015

A New Regime for Commercial and Marine Insurance Law

Edited by Malcolm Clarke, St John's College, Cambridge and Baris Soyer, Institute of International Shipping and Trade Law, University of Wales, Swansea, UK

The Insurance Act 2015 represents the first major reform of English commercial insurance law for many years. Its impact will be felt not only in England, where it will greatly affect both maritime and commercial insurance practice, but also elsewhere where English law is the law of choice in insurance contracts. Written by a team of insurance experts, this book will analyse in depth the key aspects of the ACT and extensively restates and modifies a number of legal principles applying both at common law and under the Marine Insurance Act 1906.
