Routledge Handbook of Democratization in Africa

Edited by Gabrielle Lynch, University of Warwick, UK and Peter VonDoepp, University of Vermont, USA

This volume explores the issues and debates surrounding the ongoing processes of democratization in sub-Saharan Africa, illuminating the central dynamics characterizing Africa's democratic experiments, and considering the connections between democratization and economic, social, and cultural developments on the continent. Encouraging a comprehensive view of key concerns and enhancing understanding of particular issues, the Handbook of Democratization in Africa represents a critical resource for experts and students of African politics, democratization, and African studies.

Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Thailand

Edited by Pavin Chachavalongpun, Kyoto University, Japan

The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Thailand is a timely survey and assessment of the state of contemporary Thailand. While Thailand has changed much in the past decades, this handbook proposes that many of its problems have remained intact or even persistent, particularly problems related to domestic politics. It underlines emerging issues at this critical juncture in the kingdom and focuses on the history, politics, economy, society, culture, religion and international relations of the country.

Routledge Handbook of Revolutionary China

Edited by Alan Baumler, Indiana University of Pennsylvania, USA

The Routledge Handbook of Revolutionary China covers the evolution of Chinese society from the roots of the Republic of China in the early 1900s until the end of the Cultural Revolution in 1966. The essays in this volume explain aspects of the process of revolution and how people adapted to the demands of the revolutionary situation. Exploring changes in political leadership, as well as transformation in culture, it compares the differences in experiences in urban and rural areas and contrasts rapid changes, such as the war with Japan and Communist 'liberation' with evolutionary developments, such as the gradual redefinition of public space.

Routledge Handbook of Integrated Project Delivery

Edited by Derek Walker, Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology, Australia and Steve Rowlinson, University of Hong Kong

The concept of integrated project delivery (IPD) has evolved as a result of the need for highly expert teams of people to collaborate to deliver extremely complex projects, to manage expectations about delivery speed, changes in governance standards and to take advantage of and manage expectations raised by rapid advances in technology. All this demands effective change management. This is the first Handbook to contextualise and thematically explore the concept with an emphasis on rigorous practical and theoretical validation.

The Routledge Handbook of Henri Lefebvre, The City and Urban Society

Edited by Michael E. Leary-Owhin, South Bank University, UK and John P. McCarthy

This is the first edited book to focus on Lefebvre's urban theories and ideas from a global perspective with contributions from both eminent as well as emergent global scholars. It helps the reader navigate the complex terrain of spatial research inspired by Lefebvre, the series of struggles globally for the 'right to the city' and the collision of debates around the urban age, 'cityism' and planetary urbanisation. It will be a guide for graduate and advanced undergraduate teaching, and a key reference for academics in the fields of Human Geography, Sociology, Political Science, Applied Philosophy, Planning, Urban Theory and Urban Studies.

The Routledge Handbook on the Reception of Classical Architecture

Edited by Nicholas Temple, University of Huddersfield, UK, Andrzej Piotrowski, University of Minnesota, USA and Juan Manuel Heredia, Portland State University, USA

This is the first book to examine the reception of the classical tradition in architecture in different regions of the world. Exploring the impact of colonialism, the authors show how classical principles were disseminated across the globe. By identifying numerous unresolved and contentious issues, they question long-held assumptions and draw attention to Euro-centric approaches to classical architecture. Featuring over forty essays from a range of international scholars, coverage includes Europe and the Levant, Asia and the Indian Subcontinent, the Americas, and Australasia.

Routledge Companion to Shen Congwen

Edited by Gang Zhou, Sihe Chen, Zhang Xinying and Jeffrey C Kinkley

Series: Chinese Literature Series from a Global Perspective

This volume is about studies of Shen Congwen (1902-1988), one of the most important writers in modern China, but more importantly, it is about how Shen Congwen has been received in and beyond Mainland China. By presenting the best literary criticism on Shen Congwen in Mainland China over the past eighty years, and views of how Shen Congwen has been understood, interpreted, and appreciated in Japan, the US, France, and other European countries, the editors propose a new way to approach the topics of canonic writers, modern Chinese literature, and world literature.
