

PSYCHOLOGY

Part of the Gender and Sexualities in Psychology Series, Non-Binary Gender Identities

examines how non-binary people discover, adopt, and negotiate language in a variety of social settings, both offline and online. It considers how language, in the form of gender-neutral pronouns, names, and labels, is a central aspect of identity for many and has been the subject of much debate in recent years. It offers recommendations for policy makers and practitioners, designed to facilitate gender-related communication and decrease language-related distress on non-binary people, as well as the general population, and is also suitable for students and academics in social psychology and gender studies. 9780367637095, 12/10/2022, £34.99/$44.95

Digital Gender-Sexual Violations argues that the fundamental issues around how victim-survivors of digital gender-sexual violations are abused can be understood in terms of gender and sexual dynamics, constructions, positioning and logics. The book explores issues such as revenge pornography, upskirting, social media trolling, evaluating and suggesting changes to existing legislative frameworks, education, victim support, and practical and policy interventions against DGSV, along with wider political considerations. This is a unique resource for students, academics and researchers as well as professionals dealing with issues around digital gender-sexual violations. 9780367686116, 26/10/2022, £29.99/$39.95

Thought and Knowledge, 6th Edition

Thought and Knowledge applies theory and research from the learning sciences to teach students the critical thinking skills that they need to succeed in today's world. The text identifies, defines, discusses, and deconstructs contemporary challenges to critical thinking, from fake news, alternative facts, and deep fakes, to misinformation, disinformation, post-truth, and more. It guides students through the explosion of content on the internet and social media and enables them to become careful and critical evaluators as well as consumers. This edition has been streamlined with thoughtful consideration over what content to keep, what to cut, and how much new and current research to add. Critical thinking skills are presented in every chapter, empowering students to learn more efficiently, research more productively, and present logical, critical, and informed arguments. This edition also features an eBook+ that includes practice quizzes with 110 true and false questions, 45 active learning questions, 36 active learning exercises, flash cards, and journal entry prompts. 5th Edition LTD sales: 4,852/$294,642. 9781138655171, October 25, 2022, $94.95/£59.99

Topics from Child and Adolescent Psychology Series

This modular series offers concise guides on key aspects of child and adolescent development. Each book, drawn from selected chapters from Stephen von Tetzchner's comprehensive textbook Child and Adolescent Psychology: Typical and Atypical Development, provides an accessible introduction for students of relevant modules on developmental psychology courses, as well as for professionals working in the fields of child development, developmental disabilities and special education. Uniquely in the market, the books explain the key aspects of human development by integrating insights from both typical and atypical development to cement understanding of the processes involved and show how best to work with children who have developmental disorders. The series is supplemented by a range of student and instructor resources on the core book's companion website.

Book 1 9781032267609; Book 2 9781032267692; Book 3 9781032267715; Book 4 9781032267753; Book 5 9781032267777; Book 6 9781032267791; Book 7 9781032267821, £16.99/ $22.95

Inspiring Motivation in Children and Youth

The first title in the brand new Applying Child and Adolescent Development in the Professions Series explores motivation and its crucial role in promoting well-being in the both the classroom and life beyond school. David Bergin examines the ways children's goals, self-efficacy, self-determination, and feelings of being cared for affects their motivation as well as their desire to learn more about themselves and the world. This essential guide also addresses influences of competition, diversity, prejudice, and discrimination on motivation. It is for any student looking to excel in a psychological, educational, health, or social work setting, as well as professionals in the field, and parents. 9780367495411, 9/23/22, £18.99/$24.95

Youth Without Family to Lean On: Global Challenges and Local Interventions

With increased focus on failing children's social care systems, this timely volume draws together interdisciplinary, global perspectives to provide a comprehensive review of the development of youth aged 15–25 who have no family to lean on, either practically or psychologically. It examines key topics such as social support, developing a sense of belonging, parental involvement, homeless youth, residential care-leavers, refugees, and asylum-seekers. Crucially, it explores interventions from around the world that have successfully improved these young people's life outcomes. 9780367645038, 9/20/22, £39.99/ $52.95

The Brain-Friendly Museum: Using Psychology and Neuroscience to Improve the Visitor Experience

This innovative book outlines a fresh approach to experiencing museums in new ways. It applies theory from psychology and neuroscience to consider how our cognitive processes, memory, perception and emotions can be used to engage with and enjoy the museum environment, regardless of our background, language or culture. 9781032303291, 4th October 2022, £34.99 / $46.95

Working with MEG: A Practical Guide to Magnetoencephalography

This book provides an accessible and user-friendly guide to using magnetoencephalography (MEG) in neuroscience research. It is essential reading for those starting out in MEG research and equips readers with the basics, using a range of illustrations and examples. The book outlines key concepts and terminology, guidance on using equipment, how to perform data analysis and applications of MEG. 9781138645165, 14th Oct 2022, £19.99

Undertaking Capstone and Final Year Projects in Psychology

Capstone projects have long been used in other disciplines but are now being seen within psychology courses. This textbook is a one-stop-shop for anyone looking to undertake a capstone project or other final project. In a friendly and collaborative style, this book guides the student through everything they need to know to ensure a successful capstone or other final project. 9781032201443. 2nd September 2022. £29.99/$39.95

A Humane Vision of Clinical Psychology, Volume 1 & Volume 2

The first of these two volumes outlines a serious reformulation of psychotherapy by introducing an alternative approach that contrasts the prevailing perspective dominating the field of psychology. The new model is premised on the continuity of being and is formulated to be used as a therapeutic tool in contemporary psychotherapy. This offers the theoretical basis that grounds the application of these ideas as featured in the case studies of Volume II, which applies this framework in case studies stemming from the author's clinical work and features real dialogue with real patients. 9781032259925 & 9781032259932. 30th August 2022. £39.99/$52.95

EDUCATION

Enriching Vocabulary in Secondary Schools: A Practical Resource for Teachers and Speech and Language Therapists

This much-anticipated book from Speechmark star author Vicky Joffe and her co-author Billie Lowe includes a range of programmes, strategies, and resources for vocabulary learning, together with the evidence base and key research underpinning them. Chapters offer a plethora of word-learning activities, ideas, and downloadable resources for implementation in the classroom, small groups, and individually. This book will give readers a deeper understanding of the significance of language, along with an extensive practical toolkit to help teach and enhance the vocabulary learning of older children and young people. 9781138360402, 27.10.22, £29.99/$39.95

Journeying to the Heart of SENCO Wellbeing: A Guide to Enable and Empower SEND Leaders

SENCO wellbeing matters and this accessible book is written by experienced SENCOs for SENCOs to offer crucial support and guidance on important aspects of what can be a challenging and complex role. Divided into three parts – people, purpose and place – it explores essential themes to support SENCO wellbeing, from building a team and finding joy in the job, to managing conflict and balancing time and workload. Each chapter includes mindful moments, allowing the reader to consider reflective questions and calls to action, as well as case studies and activities, to consolidate learning and help SENCOs to develop their own bespoke wellbeing toolkit. 9781032123097, 31.10.22, £18.99/$24.95

Supporting Autistic Children at Home: A Practical Guide for Parents and Caregivers

Written from the author’s joint perspective as a qualified teacher with an expertise in autism, and as a grandmother of an autistic grandchild, this practical guide offers a wealth of advice to support parents and caregivers who have an autistic child within their family. It provides accessible and straightforward information on the topics that matter most, from initial questions around diagnosis, to providing the best home support. Chapters also debunk myths commonly held about autism and signpost appropriate support mechanisms, including ideas to help with sleep, diet, sensory sensitivities, social interactions, communication, and much more. 9780367641184, 30.9.22, £18.99/$24.95

Reflective Clinical Supervision in Speech and Language Therapy

This is the first book in the Professional Development in Speech and Language Therapy series, which encourages the practitioner to take time for themselves and focus on their own personal development as an SLT. Packed full of practical tips and case studies based on the experiences of the author, this book guides the reader on being both a supervisor, and a supervisee, and how to get the best from your time together throughout your career. There is much on the market addressing clinical supervision, but this is the first book written especially for the speech and language therapist. 9781032129013 / 31st October 2022 / £26.99/$34.95

Handbook of Philosophy of Education

The Handbook of Philosophy of Education is a comprehensive guide to the most important questions about education that are being addressed by philosophers today. Authored by an international team of distinguished philosophers, its thirty-five chapters address fundamental, timely, and controversial questions about educational aims, justice, policy, and practices. 9781032000039, 10/26/2022, £99.99/$130

How Young Adult Literature Gets Taught: Perspectives, Ideologies, and Pedagogical Approaches for Instruction and Assessment

A manual for teaching Young Adult Literature, this textbook presents perspectives and methods on how to organize and teach literature in engaging and inclusive ways that meet specific educational and programmatic goals. The broad spectrum of topics covered in the text gives pre-service teachers and students a toolbox to select and apply methods of their choosing that support effective reading and writing instruction in their own contexts, motivate students, and foster meaningful conversations in the classroom. Each chapter is written by an expert and offers a rich and nuanced approach to teaching YA Literature through a distinct lens, including multimodal, historical, social justice, and place-based approaches. 9781032258355, October 20 2022, $48.95

Acute-Crisis-Leadership-in-Higher-Education explores higher education leadership during times of extreme pressures and limited, changing information. Organized around different functional units in higher education institutions, this extremely topical work describes the ways in which campus communities were affected by and responded to the early pandemic crisis. By unpacking observations of real leaders from American institutions of higher education during the COVID-19 pandemic, this book provides lessons learned and takeaway strategies for complex decision-making during a crisis. This edited collection explores the unique moment when leaders and teams must make, implement, and adjust plans rapidly to assure delivery of their missions, while still addressing the needs of students, parents, employees, and stakeholders. 9781032145549, October 25th, $42.95 pb

On-the-Write-Track puts teachers' autonomy and their knowledge of what is right for their pupils at the heart of teaching writing. It explores a set of research-based principles, before illustrating these with case studies and examples of classroom practice. Writing is about communication. Learning to write gives children a voice that others will listen to – a voice they can use to share their ideas, articulate their feelings, amuse and delight their readers and argue for what they believe in. While every child, every teacher and every classroom are different, approaches to teaching writing can sometimes feel prescriptive, whether they are based on a particular curriculum model, commercial scheme, assessment system or underlying philosophy. This beautifully written book provides freedom and choice by introducing a practical series of 'tracks' for writing teaching, allowing teachers and students to construct personalised learning journeys. 9780367695965, October 13th, £22.99 pb

MENTAL HEALTH

Counseling and Psychotherapy for South Asian Americans: Identity, Psychology, and Clinical Implications. This essential text explores what it means to be a South Asian American living in the US while seeking, navigating and receiving psychological, behavioral or counseling services. With chapters covering topics such as: colonialism, parenting, gender, and sexuality, the editors and contributors provide the first comprehensive text about the mental health experiences of this umbrella group. Case examples, questions for reflection and suggested readings are included throughout. This is an essential text that all clinicians working with South Asian American clients should use. 9780367533496. 28/10/2022, £36.99/$48.95

Child-Centered Play Therapy: A Practical Guide to Therapeutic Relationships with Children, 2nd

ed Endorsed by Louise Guerney, a founding child-centered play therapy figure who developed the skills-based methods covered in this book, Child-Centered Play Therapy comprehensively and realistically introduces practitioners to the child-centered approach to play therapy and addresses how to incorporate the approach into schools, agencies, or private practice. On the book's website, readers will find a test bank, sample slides and syllabi, treatment planning forms, as well as additional activities and worksheets for students and trainees. Previous edition (pub'd with Wiley): 2366 copies. 9781032196879, Oct 3 2022, £48.99/$64.95

Autism and The Predictive Brain: Absolute Thinking in a Relative World

As world renowned autism expert Dame Uta Frith writes, “Peter Vermeulen makes accessible our understanding of how the brain works. Using vivid examples, he unpacks the theory to better explain the difficulties that autistic people experience in the uncertain and unpredictable world of everyday life. His recommendations for autistic people, parents, and practitioners are startling as well as compelling, a rare match between theory and practice.” Vermeulen, a well-known autism expert in his own right, synthesizes a paradigm shift in theory behind the thinking of and subsequently the treatment of people with autism. The original Dutch edition of the book has sold over 2,000 copies in its first 7 months of publishing. 9781032358970, October 26, 2022. £29.99/$39.95

Managing Social Anxiety in Children and Young People: Practical Activities for Reducing Stress and Building Self-esteem

This book introduces a new approach for working with anxious children and young people to help them develop social skills and reduce stress. The chapters feature tangible resources and exercises for developing processes of breathing, rhythm, sound, and physical movement in a way that can lead to a reduction of the anxiety and a new awareness of the self. Clearly laid out techniques are accompanied by photocopyable illustrated worksheets and story sheets to use with children and young people. It is a much-needed practical volume for them and their therapists, especially in the post-COVID world showing rising social anxiety in our youth. 9781032256634, October 18, 2022, £32.99/$42.95

Practice “The first, and probably for many years the best, clinical integration of psychoanalytic parent-infant psychotherapy with the mentalizing approach. A comprehensive and practical evidence informed approach to the most important point of prevention in mental health. A truly important contribution.” -Professor Peter Fonagy. 9780367904289, October 31, 2022, £19.99/$25.95

Dramatherapy with Elders and People with Dementia: Enabling Developmental Wellbeing

A new contribution in our reviving Dramatherapy series, this book illuminates how dramatherapy can improve the quality of life of elderly people with dementia. Unique in its approach, not only to dramatherapy with elders and people with dementia, it presents an essential validation of older people's life stage development. Enriched with vignettes and anecdotes based on rigorous research and measurement, the book is a must read for arts therapists and other allied professionals working with the elderly. Author Joanna Jaaniste will be presenting a talk and workshop on the book at the upcoming British Association of Dramatherapists conference this week. 9781032030302, October 26, 2022, £29.99/$39.95

A Playful Approach to Restoration Therapy: Helping Kids Play their Way from Pain to Peace by

Nancy Frigaard This accessible guide provides family and play therapists with an innovative method for addressing maladaptive emotional behavior in vulnerable children. Including step-by-step session plans as well as introducing metaphorical "coping characters", Brutus the Blaming Badger, Sharla the Shameful Sheep, Contessa the Controlling Cow and Eddie the Escape Goat, the chapters encourage a therapeutic play environment that draws upon accessible techniques, empowering children to regain control of their responses to emotional pain. By moving between a framework of practical insight and its creative application, this text ensures therapists engage with clients where they are and build empathetic relationships with them. 9780367458133, 18/10/2022, £29.99/$39.95

Collaborative-Dialogic Practice: Relationships and Conversations that Make a Difference Across Contexts and Cultures edited by Harlene Anderson and Diane R. Gehart

Collaborative-Dialogic Practice provides professionals a humanizing approach in facilitating transformative dialogues with their clients, making a difference and creating surprising possibilities in our fast-changing, diverse, and ever-shrinking world. Written alongside a collection of international contributors, the book introduces collaborative-dialogue and locates it within traditional and contemporary challenges and practices before detailing the practice in a variety of contexts, cultures, and diverse populations. It illustrates how readers can translate the concepts to their distinctive practice settings and their clients' unique situations. 9780367741471, 13/10/2022, £29.99/$39.95

Active Learning Lessons, Activities, and Assignments for the Modern Social Work Educator edited by Karen Zgoda To practice social work in the real world, students need to be energized and engaged with the realities of the modern social work landscape. Written in an accessible and practical style, the impressive array of contributors provide social work educators with structured lesson plans, practice exercises, and assignments that can be used in both the physical and virtual classroom. Combining the latest research with current social work practice trends, the chapters cover cutting-edge topics such as ethics, social work technology, the importance of self-care, and social justice and activism, bridging the gap between current social work education and the needs of the modern social work student. 9780367242602, 19/10/2022, £34.99/$49.95

The Existential Importance of the Penis: A Guide to Understanding Male Sexuality by Daniel N.

Watter The first of its kind, this book applies existential principles to sexual problems, providing clinicians with the tools to understand male sexuality more deeply. Alighting from the existential psychotherapy tenets of Irvin D. Yalom, Watter introduces the notion that the penis is a conduit for male emotion, and hence regulates their ability to form and experience intimate relationships. The book explores an existential view of male sexual dysfunction, non-sexual trauma, hypersexuality, changing bodies through illness, age, and injury, and examines badly behaved men to understand the meaning of certain behaviors. 9780367651114, 24/10/2022, £29.99/$39.95

Modern Ego Psychology and the Human Sexual Experience: The Meaning of Treatment by Eric

R. Marcus This text examines human sexuality through psychoanalytic theory and modern ego psychology, exploring emotional meaning and its organization in symbolic representations of affect as organized by the ego. It starts with an exploration of how symbolic representations are applied to the sensory experience of the body in human sexuality, both in reality and in fantasy. The author then delves into the phenomenon of romance as an important self-state in human growth and development. The book concludes with an examination of fetishes and fetish enactments, followed by a discussion of relevant treatments. 9781138589308, 21/10/2022, £29.99/$39.95

Lockdown Therapy: Jungian Perspectives on How the Pandemic Changed Psychoanalysis

This new edited volume consists of two parts, featuring interviews with various authoritative voices within analytical psychology, as well as personal essays by Jungian analysts on the pandemic, lockdown, and how each individual coped with the challenges brought about by these circumstances. The editors are highly-respected within the field and have brought together a rich group of contributors from around the world to reflect on how Covid-19 affected and changed the way therapists work with patients. 9781032200156, 11/10/2022, £29.99/$39.95

Freud and Jung on Religion, Classic Edition

This is a Classic edition of a book originally published in 1997 that presents a detailed and comparative study of both Freud and Jung's theories of religion. Assumes no prior knowledge of these theories making it a key teaching text. The original edition sold 4110 copies. 9781032207131, 27/10/2022, £29.99/$39.95

Coaching and Supervising Through Bereavement: A Practical Guide to Working with Grief and Loss

This book works as a guide for coaches and supervisors working with clients going through grief and bereavement. It doesn't just focus on bereavement through death, also addressing other forms such as job loss and relationship loss, and guides coaches through these difficult interactions. 9780367540715, 17/10/2022, £29.99/$39.95

A Psychotherapist Paints explores the boundaries of group analysis, psychotherapy, autobiography and art therapy, reflecting on the value of creativity for professional practice. Building on online group sessions which have been hosted by Morris Nitsun since 2020, the book explores his personal and professional history, his drive for creativity and the benefits it brings to his practice, and includes interpretations of 50 colour images from a range of perspectives. The book's message about the importance of art, creativity and self-discovery will appeal to psychotherapists and their clients alike. Morris is also the author of The Anti-Group (5000 copies sold). 9781032140773; 21/10/22; £29.99/$39.95.

EMDR and Creative Arts Therapies guides therapists trained in EMDR in the successful integration of the creative arts therapies to make the healing potential of EMDR safer and more accessible for patients who present with complex trauma. Contributors from the respective fields of creative and expressive arts therapies offer their best ideas on how to combine EMDR with these therapies for maximum benefit for people from diverse backgrounds, orientations, and vulnerable populations. This is the first book to meld EMDR with creative arts and expressive therapies. 9780367742836, October 31, 2022, $44.95

Medical Crises in Eating Disorders provides medical clinicians as well as others with an acute awareness of the critical and potentially lethal medical outcomes they may have to face when managing those with eating disorders. This innovative book is a necessary reference for those who manage the medical concerns of those with eating disorders, including critical care physicians, internists, pediatricians, psychiatrists, and family physicians. As well, psychologists, counselors, dietitians, nurse practitioners and social workers will benefit from an increased awareness of critical medical risks. 9780367512644, October 13, 2022, $39.95

More About Couples on the Couch

Building on the success of Couples on the Couch, this new book offers more insights and strategies for working psychoanalytically with couples. Although based around the Tavistock Model, the authors cover perspectives from a wide range of theoretical perspectives, as well as providing numerous clinical examples of this work in action. This is an invaluable book for any analyst or therapist working with couples. 9781032207452, 25/10/2022, £29.99/$39.95

Personal Grief Rituals

Paul Martin blends insights from across the mental health professions and across cultures to offer a guide to how grief rituals can be created to help individuals with many types of loss and grief. With a deeply compassion and open-minded stance, he explores how finding a ritual which is genuinely meaningful for people can have great psychological benefit, whether within the context of wider clinical practice or in personal life. 9780815384120, 21/10/2022, £24.99/$34.95

The Trauma of Racism

This ground-breaking book gathers insights from across psychoanalysis to discuss a wide range of experiences and effects of racism, in professional settings and in the wider community. Bearing witness to the experiences of psychoanalysts and patients of colour, as well as a frank exploration of white privilege, this important books sets a new standard for more inclusive theory and practice in psychoanalysis and psychotherapy. 9781032247472, 31/10/202, £29.99/$39.95

Mother-Baby-Toddler Group Guide

From a broadly psychodynamic perspective, Ilene Lefcourt offers a guide for leading mother-baby-toddler groups, a text for teaching child development, and a handbook for early intervention. Focusing on the child's first 3 years of life, Lefcourt explores how mothers' memories of their own childhoods can shape their parenting and how early clinical intervention can head off problems for parents and infants, thereby giving a unique perspective not just on treatment but also prevention. 9781032351391, 7/10/2022, £19.99/$26.95

Teaching Online for Kindergarten and Primary Teachers: Get Ready for your Next Online Class. This practical guide to online teaching is for kindergarten teachers and primary or elementary teachers. It is based on research, teacher interviews, and the author's real-world experience working in online education, as both a teacher and a trainer. A clear, informative, and pragmatic book for all educators and students to deepen their knowledge and prepare them for teaching online and delivering effective online education like a professional. “Gregory gives us all confidence to face our online lessons with competence. Writing about what's important to you is no mean feat. A valuable resource to the teaching toolkit.” André Double, Head of Primary at Invictus School Shenzhen 9781032168548; 25/10/2022; PB £29.99