Middle Class Meltdown in America: Causes, Consequences, and Remedies 3rd Edition By Kevin T Leicht, Scott T Fitzgerald ISBN 9780367459116 August 31, 2022 376 Pages 87 B/W Illustrations Paperback GBP £32.99

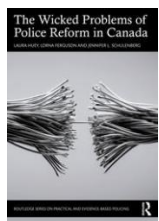

Based on income alone, nearly half of all adults in the United States can be considered "middle class," complete with the reassurance of a steady job, the ability to raise a family, and the comforts of owning a home. And yet, for many, because of structural forces reshaping the finances of the American middle class, the margin between a stable life and a fragile one is narrowing.

American Criminal Law: Its People, Principles, and Evolution By Paul H. Robinson, Sarah M. Robinson ISBN 9781032191850 August 12, 2022 442 Pages 128 Color Illustrations Paperback £36.99

"American Criminal Law: Its People, Principles, and Evolution is quite simply a remarkable book. More than any other book I know, it succeeds in making criminal law come alive. Its lively writing style and truly deft selection of illustrative cases brings home the ethical and human complexities that are often hidden behind legal abstractions. Bravo!"

Austin Sarat, William Nelson Cromwell Professor Jurisprudence and Political Science, Amherst College.

The Wicked Problems of Police Reform in Canada By Laura Huey, Lorna Ferguson, Jennifer L. Schulenberg ISBN 9781032281858 August 12, 2022 134 Pages 9 B/W Illustrations Paperback £34.99

This book looks at police reform in Canada, arguing that no significant and sustainable reform can occur until steps are taken to answer the question of 'What exactly do we want police to do?' Adding challenge to this is that setting boundaries on what we expect the police to do requires grappling with the complex social problems we ask them to resolve. In public policy language, these are 'wicked problems' – social or cultural issues frequently seen as intractable.

Rape: Challenging Contemporary Thinking – 10 Years On 2nd Edition Edited By Miranda A. H. Horvath, Jennifer M. Brown ISBN 9780367757410 August 9, 2022 320 Pages 6 B/W Illustrations Paperback £32.99

Takes stock of current thinking and research about rape and the way it is handled in practice within the criminal justice system, as well as challenging some of the widely held but inaccurate beliefs about rape. Bringing the book to the cutting edge, the second edition incorporates both old and new contexts where sexual exploitation takes place, identifying some knowledge gaps especially when considering the voices of complainants/victims/survivors who are invisible or muted, numerous new areas of research including the implications arising from #MeToo and BLM movements, the limitations of our present criminal justice systems, and radical alternatives to closing the justice gap.

Religion, Spirituality and Secularity among Millennials: The Generation Shaping American and Canadian Trends By Sarah Wilkins-Laflamme ISBN 9781032109213 August 19, 2022 196 Pages 26 B/W Illustrations Paperback £34.99

Information Classification: General

This book explores the world of religion, spirituality and secularity among the Millennial generation in the United States and Canada, with a focus on the ways Millennials are doing (non)religion differently in their social lives compared with their parents and grandparents.

The Future of Sociology: Ideology or Objective Social Science? Edited By Robert Leroux, Thierry Martin, Stephen Turner

ISBN 9781032045054 August 5, 2022 230 Pages 2 B/W Illustrations Paperback £34.99

This book explores the shift in sociology away from the shared aspiration of the classical transition, of transcending partiality through the construction of a "science of society", in the face of challenges to the notion of objectivity.

Surfing Spaces By Jon Anderson ISBN 9781138849341 August 4, 2022 250 Pages 8 B/W Illustrations Hardback £120.00

The act of surfing involves highly-skilled humans gliding, sliding, or otherwise riding waves of energy as they pass through water. As this book argues, however, this act of surfing does not exist in isolation. It is defined by the cultures and geographies that synergize with it.

Geographies of Food and Power By Amy Trauger ISBN 9780367747664 August 17, 2022 210 Pages 56 Color & 15 B/W

"This is the geography textbook for the class I always wished I'd taken, progressing from introductory concepts to sophisticated analysis over the arc of a semester. With terrific suggestions for supplementary reading, watching, and discussion, Amy Trauger's Geographies of Food and Power is set to become a classic foundation for generations of geographers." Raj Patel, Research Professor, Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs, The University of Texas at Austin, USA.

Queer Criminology 2nd Edition By Carrie L. Buist, Emily Lenning ISBN 9780367760236 August 12, 2022 230 Pages

Paperback £32.99

The field of Queer Criminology is evolving quickly, as our knowledge about the nuance and complexity of gender and sexuality continues to grow. Research in this area has exploded since the publication of the first edition of Queer Criminology, and the second edition provides an important update to our knowledge as we continue to "queer" criminology and embark upon the process of centering a field that was once marginalized. Christina DeJong, Associate Professor of Criminal Justice, Michigan State University.

This volume explores the concept of "spatial transparency"; a form of spatial continuity that articulates depth through permeable, layered, or porous three-dimensional organizations where interstitial light is present.

*Design Capital: The Hidden Value of Design in Infrastructure* By Sherry McKay, AnnaLisa Meyboom

ISBN 9780367565435 July 29, 2022 284 Pages 52 B/W Illustrations Paperback £34.99

Well-designed infrastructure brings social value that far exceeds its initial construction expenditure, but competition for scarce government funds and a general public perception of infrastructure as mere efficiency, has often left design ill-considered. This book provides designers with the tools needed to argue for the value of design: the 'design capital' as the authors term it. In naming and defining design capital, design can once again become part of the discussion and realization of every infrastructure project.

POLITICS, AREA STUDIES, SECURITY STUDIES

*Substantive Representation of Women in Asian Parliaments* (Open Access) By Devin Joshi, and Christian Echle
