Conspiracy Theories in the Time of Covid-19 By Clare Birchall, Peter Knight "This essential and timely book by two leading scholars simultaneously provides a wonderful synthesis of scholarship on conspiracy theory and an insightful and informed account of the theories surrounding Covid. It's a necessary corrective to simplistic assumptions about popular belief and disbelief and will remain relevant for decades." Mark Fenster, University of Florida, USA.

Horatio Bottomley and the Far Right Before Fascism By David Renton Horatio Bottomley and the Far Right Before Fascism examines Bottomley's life and politics, and what made him one of the great figures of Edwardian life. During the first World War, his magazine John Bull sold two million copies a week. Bottomley addressed huge crowds urging them to wage a war of extermination against ordinary Germans. The first chairman of the Financial Times, the inspiration for Toad in The Wind in the Willows, Bottomley was also a major figure in post-1918 politics, urging Conservative voters to dump their leaders and try something new.

International Political Economy 7th Edition By Thomas Oatley Broadly viewing the global economy as a political competition that produces winners and losers, International Political Economy holistically and accessibly introduces the field of IPE to students with limited background in political theory, history, and economics. This text surveys major interests and institutions and examines how state and non-state actors pursue wealth and power. Emphasizing fundamental economic concepts as well as the interplay between domestic and international politics, International Political Economy not only explains how the global economy works, it also encourages students to think critically about how economic policy is made in the context of globalization.

The New United Nations: International Organization in the Twenty-First Century* 3rd Edition By John Allphin Moore, Jr., Jerry Pubantz The third edition of this successful text highlights new international trends toward global governance, nation-building, and human development, while also assessing the extraordinary challenges confronting the United Nations at this critical moment in international affairs, not least being the ubiquity of conflict in Africa, the Middle East, and Europe, and the global threats of disease, climate change, and the retreat from multilateralism by the great powers. A comprehensive guide to the world body's institutions, procedures, policies, specialized agencies, historic personalities, initiatives, and involvement in world affairs, The New United Nations is organized thematically, blending both topical and chronological explanations, making reference to current scholarly terms and theories.

The Environmental Policy Paradox* 8th Edition By Zachary A. Smith, Peter Jacques The Environmental Policy Paradox by Zachary A. Smith and Peter Jacques is a very well-written, comprehensive and informative textbook on the environmental policy-making process in the United States. This eighth edition updates and improves the already very useful, insightful and widely-recognized textbook in order to meet the changing needs and expectations of the students. I would like to recommend The Environmental Policy Paradox to all undergraduate and post-graduate students very enthusiastically. Oktay F. Tanrisever, Chairperson, Center for Black Sea and Central Asia (KORA), Faculty Member, Department of International Relations, Middle East Technical University.

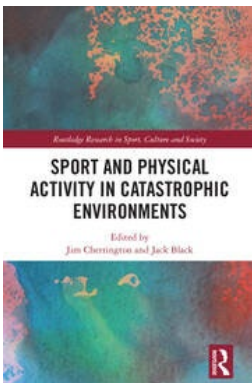

Japan's Prisoners of Conscience: Protest and Law During the Iraq War By Lawrence Repeta "This superb book details the abuse of police power to suppress dissent during the Iraq War. The author leads readers into Japan's courtrooms and delivers rich descriptions of the lawyers and supporters who rallied to defend three antiwar activists jailed and prosecuted after they criticized the Self-Defense Forces deployment to Iraq. Amnesty International dubbed them "Prisoners of Conscience," highlighting how they were targeted for criticizing government policy." Jeff Kingston, Director of Asian Studies and Professor of History, Temple University, Japan.

HEALTH & SOCIAL CARE, SPORT, & TOURISM/EVENTS

Torkildsen's Sport and Leisure Management* 7th Edition Edited By Rob Wilson, Chris Platts, Daniel Plumley 'The 7th edition of Torkildsen's Sport and Leisure Management is a timely update on this classic, comprehensive text. It provides a good introduction to the subject, covering all the important areas. Students will enjoy reading and learning from the many examples throughout the book.' Assistant Professor Leng Ho Keat, National Institute of Education - Physical Education & Sports Science, Nanyang Technological University, Singapore.

Sport and Physical Activity in Catastrophic Environments* Edited By Jim Cherrington, Jack Black 'A conceptually and empirically rich collection that offers compelling insights from around the world into the role of sport and physical activity in adapting to catastrophe. Cherrington and Black have successfully curated a compelling and timely contribution to knowledge; an intelligent and ethical book of interest to all those fascinated with thinking through how participants in sport and physical activity respond to the complexities of the environment in the context of change, continuity, and notions of 'the end'.' Cassandra Phoenix, Associate Professor in Physical Activity and Health, Durham University, UK.

ARCHITECTURE, LANDSCAPE & PLANNING, DEVELOPMENT & ENVIRONMENT

Modernising Post-war France: Architecture and Urbanism during Les Trente Glorieuses* By Nicholas Bullock This book is about the role played by architects, engineers and planners in transforming France during the three post-war decades of growing prosperity, a period when modernisation was a central priority of the state, promising a way forward from the shame of defeat in 1940 to a place at the centre of the new Europe.

Gender Matters in Global Politics: A Feminist Introduction to International Relations 3rd Edition Edited By Laura J. Shepherd, Caitlin Hamilton Gender Matters in Global Politics is a comprehensive textbook for advanced undergraduates studying politics, international relations, development and similar courses. It provides students with an accessible but in-depth account of feminist methodologies, gender theory and feminist approaches to key topics and themes in global politics.

Capitalism, Coronavirus and War: A Geopolitical Economy By Radhika Desai

Capitalism, Coronavirus and War investigates the decay of neoliberal financialised capitalism as revealed in the crisis the novel coronavirus triggered, but did not cause, that has been furthered by conflict across the globe.

ARCHITECTURE, LANDSCAPE & PLANNING, DEVELOPMENT & ENVIRONMENT

Design and Strategy A Step-by-Step Guide By Wanda Grimsgaard "A very accessible and comprehensive overview of a strategic design process – with practical tools and guides for working strategically with design – for both students and practitioners." Rachel Cooper OBE, Distinguished Professor of Design Management, Lancaster University, UK

Greenland's Stolen Indigenous Children: A Personal Testimony By Helene Thiesen

In this book, author Helene Thiesen recounts her experience of being removed from her family in Greenland as a young Inuk child, to be 're-educated' in Denmark and then an orphanage in Greenland. Richly illustrated with forty photos to help to situate the reader, Helene's account serves as a compelling and powerful testimony of a devastating colonial experiment, and will interest researchers and students within Indigenous Studies, Critical Pedagogy and Education, Psychology, European History, and Cultural Studies.

Out of Architecture: The Value of Architects Beyond Traditional Practice By Jake Rudin, Erin Pellegrino

"As a creator who has shifted my practice and career profoundly over the last few years, I found Out of Architecture to be a critical book for any concerned professional in the world of architecture. As our world is changing, disciplines are evolving, and architecture as a practice needs to adapt. This is a precious book
